A Letter

just to hand says: "It is needless for me to express my high opinion of Pearline, and that no clean family lives without it." Thousands of letters come praising Pearline, but they don't all put it so strongly. We wouldn't want to ourselves. We don't say that things can't be made clean without Pearline. But we do say that things can't be made clean with so little labor and so little damage by any other means. And we want to say that loudly.

Millions use Pearline. Only a short time ago they rubbed and scrubbed and fussed in the old fashioned way without it.

Beware Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you "this is as good as" or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—Pearline is never peddled; if your grocer sends you an imitation, be honest—send it back. 14 JAMES PYLE, New York.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

The Case of Newspaper Correspondents Schriver and Edwards.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8. The case of the recalcitrant newspaper correspondents Schriver and Edwards was argued today on demurrers in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia before Judge Cole. The indictments found by the Grand Jury alleged in substance that the defendants being called before a duly empowered Senate Committee of Inquiry refused to answer questions propounded by that Committee, as to the series of their information that representatives of the sugar trust had held long conferences with prominent Senators at the Arlington Hotel, and had there substantially secured in the new tariff bill what the sugar trust wanted.

Ex-Judge A. J. Dittenhoeffer, of New York, represented the defendants. He claimed that the communications made to the defendants were privileged. He discoursed at length on the great services which the press had rendered to the public by its investigations into crimes and other matters.

Judge Dittenhoeffer's proposition was that both Edwards and Schriver were excused from answering for the reason that answers might criminate them and make them liable to a criminal charge of libel. The next proposition was that the law under which the indictment was found was insufficient for the reason that it required a witness.

To Testify

even though his evidence might criminate him, and it had been held by the Supreme Court of the United States that a statute could not be constitutional when applied to one class of persons and unconstitutional when applied to another class. In this view Judge Dittenhofer contended it was immaterial where the evidence of Edwards and Schriver would have tended to criminate them so long as the courts held that in no case could a person be compelled to give evidence that would criminate him.

The President's Health

The President's complete restoration to his usual good health was demonstrated to-day when, in spite of the inclement weather, he drove in from his country home to attend to public affairs at the White House. He also resumed his public noonday reception in the east room and shook hands with about 100 persons. The President, on alighting at the White House, was seen to be wearing a good, stout pair of leather shoes and they were mates, so apparently the rheumatic gout trouble has disappeared.

Military Appropriation Bill Reported to the House.

Mr Outhwaite of Ohio, chairman of the Committee on Military Affairs, reported to the House the Military Academy Appropriation bill for the coming fiscal year. It carries an appropriation of $457,676 which is an increase of $51,153 over the last appropriation and is $121,372 under the estimates.

ACTION DISMISSED

Against H H Holmes, the Alleged Insurance Swindler.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Dec 8. The suit against H. H. Holmes, the insurance swindler, brought in this city by the Fidelity Insurance Company, has been dismissed. The reason for the dismissal is that Mrs. Holmes sent a check to the company's attorneys for $600 which amount she had deposited in a local bank and which money was all the company expected to get. The fact that Mrs. Holmes paid the sum apparently proves that the man who swindled the Insurance Company out of $10,000 and the man who married the Indianapolis school teacher are one.

KENNEBEC ICE BUSINESS

The Past Season One of the Most Prosperous on Record.

AUGUSTA, Dec. 8. The past season has been one of the most satisfactory on record for the ice business of the Kennebec river. Not for many years have the houses been so bare of ice at the present time, it being the rule to carry over several hundred thousand tons, hardly ever less than 100,000 yet now there is found on the entire river only 20,000 tons. It is estimated that the total amount of ice in the houses at the close of harvesting last spring was 1,050,000 tons. Placing 750 tons as the average cargo from the river and deducting fifteen per cent from the total amount is the actual bills of lading weights, it is found that in the neighborhood of 1,300 vessels came to the Kennebec for cargoes of ice during the season. The outlook for the workmen the coming harvesting season is flattering.

Women Take

a great deal of interest in whatever will relieve the Headaches so many of them suffer with. Relief is a boon, to be sure, but a CURE is what they should seek.

MRS. M. L CROMMETT of 30 Birch St, BANGOR, ME, was afflicted with these Headaches for years. She took three bottles of

Dana's SARSAPARILLA The Kind That Cures

and it CURED her. Four years after she writes that there had been no return of the complaint. You have the CURE right at your own door. Use it.

Mrs. Crommett says she always keeps a bottle of DANA'S in the house. Her husband, mother, sisters, and brothers-in-law all use it when needed; and all think as much of it as she does. Her mother, an old lady of 76 years of age, took it for Liver Complaint; it renewed her spryness of ten years back.

See that you get DANA'S.

MUCH BAD FEELING AROUSED

By England's Advocacy of the Armenian Cause.

A Plot to Kidnap Duke of York's Son Disclosed.

VIENNA, Dec. 8. In Austrian political and official circles much bad feeling has been aroused by England's advocacy of the cause of the Armenians.

The Neue Freie Presse says Russia's sending troops to the frontier constitutes a menace to Turkey and can be done only with England's consent.

The Pesther Lloyd says. The worst atrocities were committed against the Jews in Russia but England ignored them.

Explains the Trouble

LONDON, Dec. 8. A Constantinople despatch to the Morning Post says The Porte again explains that the trouble originated in an Armenian outbreak against Turkish authority, accompanied by conflicts between Armenians and Kurds. Troops were sent to repress the disorders, it is said, and possibly in effecting their orders they killed a number of people, but the alleged murders and outrages are deemed wholly improbable, inasmuch as "Turkish troops would only fight against armed rebels."

A Plot to Kidnap Disclosed

LONDON, Dec 8. The Morning Post prints a story to the effect that soon after the birth of the Duke of York's son a plot to kidnap him was disclosed. A special detective, it says, was appointed to protect the child and he is still on duty.

Granted an Audience

LONDON, Dec 8. A despatch to the Central News from Seoul says that Count Inouye, the Japanese Minister, was granted an audience at the Castle Dec. 6th. Upon the entrance to the royal presence of the Minister, the King's attendants withdrew, leaving His Majesty and the Japanese representative alone. Count Inouye personally explained to the King the reforms which it was proposed to inaugurate and complained that their execution had been thwarted by government intrigues, and stated that in consequence of this it was his intention to recall the Japanese troops which had been sent to attack the rebellious Tong Haks. On the 7th inst, the despatch also states, the Corean Ministers of Foreign Affairs, Finance and War visited Count Inouye and apologized for the deceit practiced and promised to consider his proposals.

The Tokio correspondent of the Central News says undoubted evidence has been obtained that during the night after the capture of Port Arthur, a number of army laborers who had been armed with swords for their own defense, with a view of doing away with the necessity of detailing soldiers for their protection, entered the town and after drinking of Chinese spirits until they had become frantic, committed revengeful reprisals upon the Chinese inhabitants. The Mikado and Government officials, upon being informed of the facts, expressed themselves as greatly chagrined and His Majesty at once ordered that a most searching investigation be made and the culprits be severely punished.

Rumored Successor to Gen Gourko

ST PETERSBURG, Dec 8. It is announced here that Count Von Schouvaloff, the Russian Ambassador to Germany, will succeed Gen Gourko, who on December 1st, tendered his resignation as military Governor of Warsaw.

CHARGES AGAINST FOOT BALL PLAYERS.

A Request from the Faculty of the University of Pennsylvania

NEW HAVEN, Dec 8. The single topic of conversation discussed on the Yale campus to-day was the communication from the University of Pennsylvania faculty to the Yale Athletic Association, asking for information as to the authenticity of the charges of professionalism against the Pennsylvania foot ball players, and the request that such charges be made formal and direct, instead of through the medium of the press. No official action has as yet been taken in the matter, but it is likely something will be done at an early day. While the athletic captains assert that no formal charges have been made against the Pennsylvania foot ball players, and they believe that probably this is the answer that will be given to the Pennsylvania faculty, there is a strong feeling here toward making public all the evidences of professionalism against Pennsylvania athletes which the Yale foot ball coachers maintain, have been accumulating for years, and sending them to the Pennsylvania faculty for their enlightenment.

At Yale the frankness of the Pennsylvania faculty is much admired, and the sentiment of the University is in favor of meeting them squarely and placing at their disposal the facts asked for.

Most of the newspaper articles sent to Yale by the newspaper faculty are very incendiary in tone and it is noticeable that but a single one bears the date line "New Haven." Most of them were sent out from New York. As far as these inflammatory press articles are concerned the managers of the Yale Athletic Association will certainly disavow complicity or even knowledge of sending them out.

CRIMINAL MATTERS

New Warrant for the Execution of Jack Cronin.

HARTFORD, Ct., Dec. 8. Warden Woodbridge, of the State prison, this morning received a new warrant for the execution of Jack Cronin, the convicted murderer of Albert J. Skinner, of South Windsor, and he will be executed about 10 o'clock on the morning of Tuesday, December 18.

Postoffice Robbed

HARTFORD, Ct, Dec. 8. The East Hartford postoffice was robbed last night. The burglars took all the postage stamps, registered letters and mail matter accumulated during the evening, and a small amount of money.

Refused to Commute Sentence.

BOSTON, Dec. 8. Governor Greenhalge has refused to commute the sentence of Daniel Robertson under sentence of death at New Bedford for wife murder. Robertson is to die next Friday.

Among the indictments presented today by the Suffolk Grand Jury in the Superior Criminal Court before Judge Hammond, two are for manslaughter. One of these is against Carmine Manetto for causing the death of Stafano Capoqianco, by a pistol shot at the North End on October 29. Salvatore Razza is also for manslaughter, being charged with causing the death of Guiseppe Lettiori by a knife thrust on October 28.

APPOINTMENT OF NEW YORK JUDGES.

Question as to the Power of Governor-Elect Morton.

NEW YORK, Dec. 8. In regard to the United Press despatches from Rhinecliff last night in which Governor-elect Morton said that he had under consideration the question of his power to make judicial appointments under the new constitution, the Times says this morning:

It was stated last night on good authority that Elihu Root, who was chairman of the Judiciary Committee of the Constitutional Convention, has prepared an elaborate opinion on the question as to whether or not Governor-elect Morton can appoint the twelve additional Judges of the Supreme Court provided for by the new constitution. This opinion is to the effect that Governor Morton make such appointments and the places on the Supreme Court bench provided for cannot be filled until the election next November.

Joseph H. Choate, who was President of the Constitutional Convention, and whose position as a constitutional lawyer is of the highest character, has read Mr. Root's opinion and agrees with it fully.

WILL CAUSE GREAT DISTRESS.

Pennsylvania Steel Works will Suspend Operations.

Upwards of 1,800 Men Will Be Thrown Out of Employment.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Dec. 8. The Patriot to-day says: There will be one of the biggest suspensions in years at the Pennsylvania steel works in about two weeks, owing to the dullness in certain branches of the iron and steel trade. The suspension will be for an indefinite period.

The suspension will throw between 1,500 and 1,800 men out of employment, and will cause widespread distress in Steelton and neighboring villages. Many of the men will not be re-employed when a resumption is ordered, owing to the introduction of improved machinery. The bridge and construction department is the only one with orders on hand and it will be busy all winter.

FIRE RECORD.

Challenge Machinery Co.'s Factory at Chicago Destroyed.

CHICAGO, Dec 8. Fire destroyed the Challenge Machinery Co.'s factory this morning. The loss to machinery and structure is estimated at $250,000. Most of the stock was covered by insurance. The Challenge Company manufactured monster paper cutters, hand cylinder presses, army and proof presses, engines, boilers and nails.

Steam Lumber Mill Destroyed

NEWPORT, Vt., Dec. 8. The steam lumber mill of Prouty & Miller was burned this morning. The loss is $20,000, no insurance. The boilers and engines were saved. These boilers furnish steam for the pumps which supply the village with water. This is the second time they have barely escaped destruction. The mill will be rebuilt at once.

MICHIGAN SILVER DEMOCRATS

Resolutions Adopted at a Conference

LANSING, Mich, Dec 8. A largely attended conference of the free silver Democrats of the State adopted resolutions here yesterday, pledging every honorable effort to get the party in the State to adopt free silver coinage as the leading issue in the next campaign.

FIGHT IN A BOX CAR

Two Killed and One Wounded.

FORT WAYNE, Dec 8. News reached this city at two o'clock this morning that in a fight last evening between a party of tramps in a box car on a Baltimore & Ohio train, two of the number were killed and another mortally wounded. The murderers leaped from the train and escaped.

DEMOCRATIC CORRUPTION

Ex-Governor Tillman Charged with Dishonest Transactions

COLUMBIA, S. C, Dec 8. Quite a sensation was caused here last night by the circulation among the members of the general assembly in pamphlet form of a letter written by B. F. Perry, a Carolinan now in Washington, to Josh Ashley, a member of the House, charging ex-Governor Tillman with receiving all kinds of rebates and other dishonest transactions, and urging Ashley to call on the Legislature for the appointment of a committee to investigate the matter.

Perry says: "Tillman dealed at Union, during the canvass, that he had ever received the rebate of seven cents a gallon on whiskey he bought from the whiskey trust. I am informed that he did receive that rebate, amounting to many thousands dollars which ought to have gone to the credit of the tax-payers. Furthermore, I am informed that the Railroad Company that transported the liquor paid Tillman a rebate on freight. I understand that Tillman got a good slice out of that Port Royal law suit and that is the reason why Tillman is afraid of Irby. There is no doubt that Tillman and John Evans got a good slice of the $118,000 given to Rhind in funding the State debt." Ex-Governor Tillman's friends do not believe the charges.

CASE OF HENRY MILES

Gov. Flower Gives His Reasons for Commuting His Sentence.

ALBANY, N. Y., Dec. 8. Governor Flower filed the following memorandum in commuting to imprisonment for life the sentence of Henry Miles, who was to have been electrocuted at Auburn prison:

"Taking into account Miles low order of intellect, the great excitement under which he was laboring and all the other circumstances of the case, the deliberation and premeditation necessary to constitute murder in the first degree, do not seem so clearly established as to warrant the infliction of the death penalty.

"The case has naturally excited great interest in Jefferson county where the homicide occurred and there is a very general sentiment among all the classes of people that life imprisonment will be a juster and wiser punishment, and upon a careful consideration of all the facts, I am fully convinced that justice will be best promoted by commuting the sentence."

THE UTE INDIAN TROUBLES.

Many Reports Regarding the Condition of Affairs.

Military Officers Expect Orders to Move at Any Moment.

DENVER, Colo, Dec. 8. There is a feeling at military headquarters that if the Governor of Utah intends to arm settlers and cowboys in Southeastern Utah to drive out the Ute Indians who are pasturing ponies and cattle in San Juan county there will be a big row. The military authorities hold that the Indians have a right to that country and it is likely should trouble arise, that troops will be sent from Fort Logan to protect the Indians. The officers are looking for orders at any moment.

Colward, Adjutant General of the Department of the Colorado, says that the responsibility for any trouble that may require United States troops to settle matters would fall on the Governor of Utah. The Indians have instructions from Washington to occupy the country they are in and settlers and cowboys have no right there whatever. The government will, it is thought, support the Indians in the position they have assumed.

GEORGIA LEGISLATURE

Refused to Pass a Measure Bringing Women into Politics

ATLANTA, Ga, Dec. 8. By a vote of 77 to 65 the legislature has set its face against an effort in the way of bringing women into politics.

Gov. Atkinson on assuming office was anxious to make Miss Helen Dortch, a young woman of 18 his private secretary. It was found that the preceding legislature had conferred military rank upon that office. Gov. Atkinson then sought to have an act passed making women eligible to hold State House clerkships, with the view of appointing Miss Dortch to the place of assistant librarian. It was this measure which the legislature refused to pass.

Grand Master Shannon, of the Masonic Fraternity, has offered Gov Atkinson the use of his name for the appointment, with the view of conferring the place upon Miss Dortch as his agent.

A BANK PRESIDENT'S PLAN

To Stop the Withdrawal of Gold from the Treasury

DENVER, Col, Dec 8. David H Moffat, President of the First National Bank, proposes the following financial plan to stop the withdrawal of gold from the treasury:

Let the government issue $500,000,000 in bonds bearing $2\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. interest and sell them to National Banks at par. Amend the National Bank law so that these bonds may be used as the basis of circulation and let the banks be allowed to issue against them, at par, their own circulating notes, which shall be legal tender, in no denomination less than $10, also repeal the tax on National Bank circulation, which would in effect raise the interest on the government bonds to about 7 per cent. In taking up all the bills of smaller denomination than $10, silver will be put in circulation as change.

Condensed Despatches

Charles F Howard was hanged at Rawlins, Wyo, Friday, for the murder of Charles Horne.

In the South Carolina Senate Friday night the bill which passed the House, making drunkenness and intoxication and the use of obscene or profane language a misdemeanor, was reported favorable and it is possible now that this attempt to legislate morality will become a law.

President F M Morseman, of the Pacific Express Co, says that his advices are that the amount taken in the Texas Pacific Railway express robbery near Fort Worth, Thursday night, was only $1,300. The publication, he says, of the exaggerated reports of sums stolen from express trains has much to do with the many attempts to rob trains.

An Important Matter Under Discussion in Ellsworth.

Gold Discovered, Iron Bridge, Raid on Rumsellers, Etc.

Aroostook

Presque Isle is still a very busy village. Railroad work is going on in every direction. A freight and passenger depot is going up and work is going on in laying side tracks and transporting material for the new iron railroad bridge across the Aroostook river. The building of potato houses with other work incidental to changes made by the railroad makes business lively and carpenters are in demand.

The Aroostook Republican says that a raid was made Friday on some of the supposed rum sellers at Fort Fairfield. The store and barber shop of C. C. Rogers and the Ervin House were searched and liquors found, and Rogers and Ervin put under bonds for appearance at the higher court.

Cumberland

The steamer Portland ran into the Grand Trunk wharf Friday morning in coming to her dock, smashing the end of the wharf and damaging the starboard bow of the steamer considerably.

The Argus has discovered a pretty mean man in Portland. The clerk's cash was $1 short the other night and the proprietor said it must be deducted from the clerk's wages. When afterward the clerk discovered that the shortage was due to a mistake of the proprietor, the latter was so mad that he reduced the weekly wages of that clerk from $8 to $7. Thereupon the clerk discharged himself.

Hancock

It is evidently not the desire of all the business men and tax payers of Ellsworth that Ellsworth should return to a town. A counter petition against the petition of Judge Emery et al. has been signed by four ex-mayors, Judge A. P. Wiswell and many others. The petition sets forth that the undersigned "believe that our municipal affairs can be more wisely, economically and satisfactorily managed under the present form of government than as a town; that a board of mayor and aldermen representing the different portions of the city, can act more calmly and deliberately and therefore better for the welfare of our people than it would be possible for all the voters to do in an annual town meeting, and that a great majority of our citizens are strongly opposed to a change in our municipal form of government." The discussion which has waxed hot and heavy on this subject has had one good effect. It has awakened interest in municipal affairs.

Knox

It is said that Miller one of the Jefferson Borden mutineers who died in Thomaston prison a few days ago confessed at the last that it was not cruelty that drove the men to mutiny but that the trouble arose because Clark one of the leaders among the men became enamored of the captain's wife. This will dispel a general impression.

Piscataquis

A town road leading from Henderson to the old travelled highway from Brownville to the Iron Works has been laid out by the selectmen of Brownville and will be built next summer. An iron bridge to cost $7,000 is to be constructed across Pleasant river.

Somerset

A correspondent of the Somerset Reporter says gold has been discovered on the farm of George Nichols, better known as the old homestead of David Holden on the banks of Heald stream, Jackman. Mr Nichols keeps a flock of ducks and marketed some of them alive and the persons who bought them, it is reported, found specks of gold in their gizzards. Nichols has since dressed two and finds the same results. The gold is supposed to come from a large washout on the stream near the house that is fifteen feet deep with a clay bed underneath.

Notice of Petition for Discharge.

STATE OF MAINE.

PENOBSCOT SS. Court of Insolvency.

In the case of Oliver E Jones, of Lincoln, in said County, Insolvent Debtor.

Notice is hereby given that a petition has on this thirtieth day of November, A D. 1894, been presented to said Court for said County by Oliver E. MUNYON'S WORK.

HIS NEW SYSTEM RESULTS IN THE DEATH RATE

PROMINENT PERSONS TESTIFY AND NEWSPAPERS INVESTIGATE

General F. T. Townsend of 1010 Poplar street, Philadelphia, whose distinguished services in the military and civil branches of the United States gave him a world wide reputation, says: "For a number of years I suffered from rheumatic pains in my limbs which soon took the form of that nerve racking disease—sciatica. I tried all sorts of medicines but could not obtain even temporary relief. Finally I procured a bottle of Munyon's Rheumatic Cure. After taking a few vials the pain ceased and I am now entirely cured."

Judge Jacob Neu of the Brooklyn City Hall Civil Court is a well known citizen whose popularity has been attested by his enormous majorities at the polls and a gentleman of unimpeachable character. Speaking of Munyon's Rheumatism Cure he says: "It is the best cure in the world. I first found it while I was out in Cleveland, Ohio. I began taking it when I was unable to walk without the aid of crutches and in three days I threw them away. It is certainly to my mind a wonderful and positive remedy."

WHAT THE PRESS SAYS

Philadelphia Times: "We know that thousands of people in our midst have been cured by Munyon's little sugar pellets."

New York Press: "Over 1800 people have written us that they have been cured by Munyon's Remedies."

Cleveland Press: "It must be remembered that this decrease in the death rate 20 per cent in one month must be very largely attributable to the free use of Munyon's Remedies. Inasmuch as the death rate in all cities where investigations of these remedies have been made in a similar way, as is being done by the Press, it always shown a decrease."

Washington Post: "Munyon's Remedies reduced the death rate in Washington 18 per cent in three weeks."

Professor Munyon does not put up one remedy and claim this it will cure all diseases. He does claim however that his Rheumatism Cure will cure rheumatism; that his Dyspepsia Cure will cure dyspepsia, constipation and all forms of stomach trouble; that his Catarrh Cure will positively cure catarrh; that his Kidney Cure will cure pains in the back, loins, or groins and all forms of kidney diseases; that his Cold and Cough Cures will cure colds and coughs and prevent pneumonia; that his Nerve Cure will restore to a healthy condition overworked and over trained nerves. Headache cured in five minutes. Instant Constipation, Neuralgia and all forms of Female Complaint quickly cured.

If you are ailing step into the nearest drug store and get a 25 cent vial of one of Munyon's Cures. No matter what your disease or how many doctors have failed to cure you, Munyon's Remedies relieve almost immediately and are absolutely harmless. Ask your druggist for Munyon's Guide to Health. With this and Munyon's Remedies every person can be his own doctor.

Whig and Courier.

BY BOUTELLE BROTHERS.

All business letters should be addressed to Boutelle Brothers, and communications intended for publication should be addressed "Editor of Whig and Courier."

MONDAY DECEMBER 10 1894

Boston's municipal election occurs tomorrow If the full Republican vote comes out the managers of the Republican canvass predict the election of Mr Curtis by a plurality ranging from 1,000 to 5,000 There seems to be no question that the Republican candidate is the best man for the place he not only having had a practical business experience, but is entirely familiar with the affairs of the city having discharged the responsible duties of clerk in a highly satisfactory manner The Democrats had a very narrow margin in the last State election in Boston and ought to be defeated Tuesday

Mr Arthur Sewall is not pleased with a natural fruit of Democratic rule He was ready to serve as a member of the Democratic National Committee with the avowed purpose of giving the country the full benefits of a Democratic administration but he is now willing to admit that the Democrats are incompetent to manage public affairs, at least so far the tariff reforming interests are concerned He openly proclaims that the free ship scheme advocated by the President would ruin the ship building industry of the country and is managing to a public protest Mr Sewall reminds us more of the Democratic lumberman of Bath who did not think as much of a Democratic boy as they did

Republicans and Protection

Under date of the 6th the Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Press writes as follows An interview was sent out last night with Chairman Babcock of the Republican Congressional Committee in which he was represented as regarding the McKinley bill Mr Apsley the vice chairman of the committee was quoted somewhat upon the New York Herald to this effect

This gave rise to an interesting scene today in the Hall of the House It was started by Representative Boutelle, who got Mr Babcock Mr Apsley and a number of other Republicans together and hoisted the chairman and vice chairman of the Republican Congressional Committee whether or not it was true that the Republicans were defeated after all by the recent elections The two officials wanted to know what Mr Boutelle meant He said that it was generally supposed that the Republicans were a great deal to the interior election solely on the ground of the tariff and because of the remarkable contrast between the unprecedented prosperity of the country in 1892 and the McKinley act and the terrible depression that followed when it was known that the Democrats would ever draw that act

But Mr Babcock went on to deny Mr Babcock's interview at this and the editorial published in one of the New York Herald over the signature of Mr Apsley that after all the country had practically repudiated the McKinley bill He wanted to know if it was possible that such was the view that Mr Babcock and Mr Apsley took of the result Ex-Secretary Draper, of Massachusetts Mr Watson of Washington and several other Republicans who were in the group joined in the inquiry with a good deal of vigor

Mr Apsley promptly repudiated the publication in the New York Herald over his signature He said he never wrote a word for it and was out of humor to anything of the kind Chairman Babcock said the interview set out last night most presumptuously

Ex-Speaker Reed has quoted some time ago to the same effect in an interview in Detroit paper which interview he promptly repudiated as fictitious Mr Sherman saw afterward quoted in the newspapers to a similar effect But Mr Sherman took the pains to have it known that the representations which he declared that the McKinley act was the best expression of the Republican party's view of protection that we ever put upon the statute book Speaking today of the subject Mr Boutelle said

"This effort to try and make out that we were badly defeated at the recent election and the McKinley bill repudiated is the most silly one that I have ever known of Because Republicans do not say that they will repeal the McKinley bill without changing it in any particular Democratic papers try to make out that the McKinley bill has been repudiated As Governor Dingley said in conversation yesterday a tariff bill when enacted must suit the conditions of the time when it goes into effect No bill ever did that better than did the McKinley act When we come to enact another tariff bill the conditions may have changed to some extent and of course, there may accordingly be changes in the McKinley act But all the conditions were not the same as in 1890 there would in my opinion be very little change in that law which brought about greater prosperity in this country, and a larger volume of foreign trade than ever existed before or since in the history of the nation

And I want to say now" said Mr Boutelle, "and to have it go on record as my prediction, that the next Republican National convention will adopt a platform more strongly in favor of a protective tariff than any that has ever been adopted a tariff that shall adequately provide for the difference between the wages paid in foreign countries and the highest possible wages in the United States compatible with the prosperous development of our industries and the general welfare of the American people."

[Wash cor Boston Journal]

WASHINGTON Dec 7 Congressman Boutelle of Maine has been aroused by what he regards as serious and mischievous misrepresentation of the leaders of the Republican party on the tariff question, and expresses his views on the subject in the following vigorous fashion

"I have no patience," continued Mr Boutelle, "with my Republicans who permit themselves to be made catspaws by the Democratic and Mugwump newspapers that are laboring to belittle and break the force of the great protection victory of 1894, by intimations that the Republican party has in some way weakened, or retrograded from its former stand, upon the tariff question. It is an old trick of the Democracy to invent a phrase or catchword which they seek to make odious by iteration, and then use it as a bugaboo with which to scare timid and feather-brained Republicans. 'Bleeding Kansas,' 'Bloody Shirt,' and 'Force Bill,' are examples, and just now, after the awful thrashing administered by the people, they are desperately shouting against 'McKinleyism,' and claiming that it shared in their defeat.

"The transparent trick is to ask some unsuspicious Republican whether our party 'will re-enact the McKinley law,' and, if he answers that future conditions may indicate some possible change of rate in some item of some schedule, the Democratic paper instantly reports said Republican as having declared that 'McKinleyism is dead' and that the party will never think of restoring it. Of course, the obvious purpose is to get the impression abroad that the Republicans have repented of, or repudiated, the tariff legislation of 1890 as too pronounced in the line of protection and that the result of the recent elections has caused the Republicans to become conservative as to the importance of preserving our home markets and encouraging our own industries

"The falsehood of this pretence is shown by every fact of the recent campaign. Never before in political history was there a contest in which the main issue was made so overshadowing, or its triumph so pronounced, as in the elections of this year, when the principles of protection to American industry received the most overwhelming indorsement ever given by the American people, and it was not only a victory for the principle, but concrete triumph for the system of Republican protection enacted in 1890 as against the assault made upon it by the Wilson-Brice-Gorman monstrosity enacted by the Democrats

"The attempt to impart a prejudice against the tariff resolution of 1890, by characterizing it as McKinleyism, and representing it as something indefensible, is an insult to the Republican Congress that gave to the country two years ago what was incomparably the wisest most thoroughly systematized, most carefully considered, and most beneficial tariff legislation ever framed It represented not simply McKinleyism, but Aldrichism, Perkinsism and Republicanism None of the leaders of the Republican party were then anxious to assign to the distinguished Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means all the responsibility for all the glory of that great achievement of legislation in the most difficult of all fields It was recognized with its splendidly beneficent features, and its unavoidable, but minor imperfections as the work upon which the Republican party would appeal for the support of the people, and, while misrepresentation defeated us at the elections held before its effects were apparent, the voters of the United States had this year in stentorian tones denounced the warfare made upon it, and commanded a return to the principles and systems that gave the United States in 1892 the highest degree of prosperity ever attained by any people

"The battle was fought squarely on the issue between the fruits of the Republican legislation of 1890 and the paralyses and the disaster that followed the Democratic tariff smashing assault upon that legislation The result of the battle, from Maine to Iowa, from Connecticut to the new States and Territories far West has been so emphatic a verdict in favor of protection that no political party will ever dare to put a free trade plank in its platform or ask the people to open the American market for the products of the cheap labor of foreign countries

"In this deliberating, the great army of protectionists advanced its standards and lifted them higher than ever before The demand for the preservation of the American market for the products of our own industry and for such protection as will guarantee to American workingmen the greatest practicable diversification of employment and the highest possible wages consistent with the general welfare of the whole people has been uttered in the polls this year in stentorian tones and any man, or set of men in any party who disregard or seek to misinterpret that mandate will fail to muster a corporal's guard of supporters among the intelligent and patriotic citizens who form the future hope and safeguard of the Republic

Bill to Promote Efficiency in Revenue Marine Discussed.

Vain Attempt to Close Discussion of the Measure

House

WASHINGTON, Dec 8 Less than 100 members were in their seats when Speaker Crisp called the House to order at noon to day

Mr Mallory (Dem Fla) in advocating the passage of the bill to promote the efficiency of the revenue marine service stated that officers in the cutter service were appointed by the President for life and when incapacitated by age or infirmity from discharging the duties there is no way under the present law of providing for them, save by placing them on waiting orders at three quarters' pay. At present 30 of the 220 officers in the service are on waiting orders. Such a course prevented promotion to active officers who were sometimes compelled to perform the duties of officers of a higher rank without receiving commensurate pay therefor

Every consideration for the establishment of a retired list for the army or navy was an argument in favor of the passage of this bill. The bill was further advocated by Messrs English (Dem N J) and Covert (Dem N Y). Mr Clark (Dem Mo) spoke in opposition. The bill went over without action

Under a special order the House took up the bill to so amend the interstate commerce laws as to permit railroad companies to pool their earnings. Mr Geary (Dem Cal) and Mr Dalzell (Rep Pa) speaking in favor

After further debate, in which Mr Cox (Dem Tenn) and Mr Mahon (Rep Penn) took part in advocacy of the bill Mr Blair (Rep, N H) gave notice of his intention to offer at the proper time an amendment proposing that all contracts entered into should be subject to be changed, rescinded or terminated by Congress and that nothing in the bill should be held to enlarge or give any corporate powers that should not be subject to amendment limitation or repeal

Mr Patterson (Rep Tenn) in charge of the bill after vainly endeavoring to get unanimous consent to close general debate gave notice that on Tuesday at 3 o'clock he would ask the House to second his demand for the previous question for the passage of the bill. The House adjourned until Monday

MAIN STAY WILL BE GONE

When Stone Retires from Associated Press with Its Inferior News Service

CHICAGO Dec 8 Melville E Stone, general manager of the Western Associated Press, has promised the directors of the Globe National Bank, of this city that he will, on the first of January assume the presidency of that institution. It is understood that this action has been urged by President Witherell whose health compels him to seek retirement. It is further understood that the directors have insisted upon Stone's devoting his activities entirely to the bank's affairs

This change will deprive the Western Associated Press management of Stone's services at a critical period in the fight that association is waging with the United Press. It has been known to Stone's intimate friends many months that he had taxed his ingenuity to the utmost in conducting this fight and that he was weary of the struggle that brought no glory and in the end is certain to prove a losing one for his association

Complaints about the news service have been loud and emphatic and some newspaper editors who are compelled to take it and pay for it are rebellious enough to declare that they are growing tired of paying more money for a news service less satisfactory than any they have ever received in their experience. The recent withdrawal of the Southern Associated Press from the Western Associated Press has rather intensified this spirit and awakened grave doubts about the future of their association

Some of the Matters which are Likely to be Discussed.

No Well Defined Business Policy in Senate at Present.

Nicaraguan Canal Bill Discussion to be Started.

WASHINGTON Dec 8 There will be no well defined business policy in the Senate until the Democratic steering committee has carried out the instructions of the recent caucus. This probably will be done early this week and no effort will be made to get down to persistent work until after the holiday recess. Without waiting for the steering committee Mr Morgan will begin consideration of the Nicaragua canal bill and will address the Senate upon that measure to morrow

His remarks will doubtless call out others as he proposes to keep the subject actively before the Senate until some action is taken. Wednesday Mr Morrill will submit some remarks on several bills introduced by Mr Peffer and others, relating to the proposed financial legislation. Mr Hunter has given notice that next day he will call up the bill to establish a national university

The order in which the measures of

endorsed by the Democratic caucus may be presented to the Senate will be agreed to at as early a date as the steering committee can get together. Prominent members of that committee are authority for the statement that it has been practically agreed that the bankruptcy bill shall have precedence over all others

The policy of the Republicans is causing the majority some concern and the fear has been expressed that a system of filibustering may be inaugurated. This is denied by the Republican leaders

It is understood that they will not make any objection to the appropriation for the enforcement of the income tax, for the reason that they believe its enforcement will only result in making the law more unpopular. The Republicans have assumed the position of favoring the passage of various appropriations, beyond this they will lend their opponents no assistance

Legislation in the House

In the House, although Mr Patterson, (Dem Tenn) in charge of the railroad pooling bill, has given notice that he will ask the House to vote upon its passage Tuesday afternoon, the fate of the bill practically depends upon the action of the Appropriations Committee. If the urgency deficiency bill, which the committee is now working upon, shall be ready to report to the House when it meets Tuesday Chairman Sayers says he will present it and then urge immediate consideration

It is believed that such a request will be seconded by the House and the pooling bill be laid aside. But if the appropriation bill is not ready a vote on the pooling bill may be taken Tuesday. The general opinion is that it will pass, possibly so amended as to give the interstate commerce commission final jurisdiction of the proposed contracts between companies. To-morrow, under the rules is to be devoted to consideration of affairs of the District of Columbia unless the

and local legislation for Washington city will be taken up

Mr O Neil, (Dem Mass) has announced his intention to call up on Wednesday the pension appropriation bill for 1895-6. This will evoke discussion of the pension policy of the administration and may occupy the time of the House for more than a day. In that case it will meet the antagonism of Mr Brown (Dem, Ind) chairman of the Committee on Elections who will on Thursday ask consideration of the Williams-Settle contested election case from the fifth North Carolina district, which came over by agreement from the last session

The committee's report favors the sitting member, Mr Settle, Republican. Contested election cases are matters of the highest privilege and it has been customary for the House to take them up when called for by the committee, so if the pension bill is not previously disposed of it will probably have to yield the right of way for the time being

THE CHICAGO TRAGEDY

Two Accomplices Confess Their Share in Disposing of Body

CHICAGO, Ill, Dec 8 John B Jersey, under arrest on suspicion of being implicated in the Barnes murder, broke down in Inspector Hunt's office this morning and made the following statement

Jordan sent for me at 4 o clock Thursday afternoon and told me to go over to the Hiawatha flats and see him at 8 30 o clock that night. Jordan then told me he wanted me to help him carry a box out of the basement. I went down to help carry the box about 9 P M

"I asked him what was in the box and he replied 'There is a dead man in it. Don't say anything about it.' I helped Jordan carry the box out to the Vernon avenue front of the building. After the box was carried out Jordan went away after instructing me to wait until he returned. While waiting for him to return I fell asleep on the steps. At 11 30 o clock I awoke. The box was still there. I then went away

Some time after this the box was

and an unknown expressman. Continuing his statement Jersey says "I met Jordan next morning (Friday) in a saloon. He was buying drinks freely. I asked him what had become of the box. Jordan's reply was it took an hour to do the job." Jersey then went on to say that Jordan gave him another suit of clothes and two shirts. There was blood on Jersey's shirt sleeves, he says from that oozing out of the box. For assisting to remove the box Jersey says he was promised a job as assistant janitor. It is now supposed that Jordan wanted Barnes job, which pays $67 per month

Annie Mahoney who was under arrest was released on bail this morning and re-arrested this afternoon. She has been accused by Jersey of being the woman who accompanied Jordan in his search for the expressman. Jersey goes further than that and says she held the lantern while he and Jordan carried the boxed body out of the Hiawatha flat basement

Shortly after her arrest

to Inspector Hunt that Jordan told her he had killed a man Tuesday night, that his body had lain in the basement until Thursday night and that she held the lantern while Jordan and Jersey carried the body out of the basement. The self-confessed accomplice is a sister of the wife of John Leinendecker, a prominent politician

Mrs Leinendecker was present when the confession was made in a "don't care manner" and fainted as she started to leave Inspector Hunt's office

Annie Mahoney was identified by Phillip Dawson, an expressman, as the woman who, accompanied by Jordan, called at his house and tried to hire his horse and wagon without a driver to remove "the body of a still born child," as they said. He refused.

Another Confession

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec 9 Another confession has been made in the Catharine Ging murder case. It has been the theory of the police that C A. Blixt committed the murder at the instigation of Harry Hayward. To-day Blixt charged Harry Hayward with committing the murder. He said he was sent by Hayward to the scene of the murder. Hayward drove up with Miss Ging about 7 P M. When within fifty feet of him shots were fired and Hayward alighted from the buggy

"The deed is done," said he, "get in and drive it around until it is dead and then dump it out." Blixt took Hayward's place in the buggy and drove along about a mile until he became satisfied that Miss Ging was dead. He then drove back and when near the place where the murder was committed rolled the body in a robe and pushed it out of the buggy into the road. Blixt asserted that Hayward, after the murder, took the daughter of a prominent lawyer to the theatre.

Blixt tells of several other jobs proposed by Hayward which fell through and says after this job, for which he was to receive $2,000, or a fifth of the life insurance involved, he was to receive $400 for "doing" a Chicago man. Ole Erickson, who took a bundle of clothes to Iowa Falls, is believed to have been a dupe and it is expected he will be released.

LONDON, Dec. 8. Donaldson Bros, of Glasgow, ship owners, deny the recently circulated rumors that they are about to transfer the American terminus of their line from Montreal to Boston

Turkey's Defense in Armenian Case

LONDON, Dec. 8 Communications from the Porte to the British foreign office indicate that the line of defense to be pursued, regarding the Armenian atrocities, will be that the Armenians and Kurds were engaged in civil war, and that outrages were committed by both sides. The Turkish regulars were called upon to suppress the feud and finding the Armenians entrenched, called upon them to surrender. The Armenians refused to comply with the demand and were thereupon attacked by the troops, who were at first repulsed.

It is admitted that a number of Armenians who surrendered, upon being offered pardon for their share in the disturbances, were executed, but the stories that fortified villages were stormed by the troops that they might murder the male inhabitants and outrage the women are denied. Zekki Pasha was in command of the force that is said to have committed the outrages and caused the women, who were taken prisoners by the Turkish troops, to be closely guarded. The Sultan, it is said, is desirous that severe punishment be meted out to those guilty of committing the outrages

Dunraven's Yacht for the Big Contest

LONDON, Dec 8 The Yachting World in speaking of the yacht to be built for Lord Dunraven for the purpose of contesting for the America's cup, says she will probably combine the good points of the Vigilant and Britannia. She will be keel, not a centerboard, and will have more beam and a hollower floor than the Britannia has. Lord Dunraven will shortly bring action against A D Clark, owner of the Satanita, for damages for sinking his Lordship's yacht Valkyrie last summer.

Foreign View of Cleveland's Foreign Policy

PARIS Dec 9 Temps has a leader on the new departure in the foreign policy of the United States. It says "President Cleveland, who had but recently had only the Monroe doctrine on his lips, has now thrown himself into the thick of the conflict in another hemisphere. Doubtless the Chinese Japanese war affects American interests. What is to be said of the sending of an American commissioner to Armenia? There are indications that America may become the seventh European power"

MASKED ROBBERS

Attempt to Kill and Rob an Old Man

ATLANTA, Dec 8 Three masked men last night attempted to kill and rob B D. Summerlin, an old man living at Buchanan, Ga., who was reported to have money in the house. The old man grabbed a knife and in the encounter killed one of his assailants. One of the robbers shot the old man and he will probably die. The other two assailants escaped, but a posse is in pursuit

CARGO RUINED

By the Heavy Seas Shipped by Steamer

PHILADELPHIA, Dec 9, Shipping of heavy seas by the steamer Remus during the passage from Hamburg to this port, where she arrived Friday, practically ruined the entire cargo, valued at $100,000. The consignees refused to accept the consignments. The damage done during the stormy passage consuming twenty days was further augmented by the action of the salt water upon the large quantity of beef sugar which composed part of the cargo

The salt water, which attained a depth of five feet in the hold, coming in contact with the sugar transformed it practically to valueless black molasses syrup. This liquid syrup in turn mixed with the balance of the cargo, composed of saurkraut, rags, clay, zinc dust, beans, muriate of potash, arsenic, and ruined all not enclosed in perfectly air tight casks

ARMENIAN TROUBLES

Turkish Minister to United States Refuses to Make Statement

WASHINGTON, Dec 8 Nothing whatever can be learned at the Turkish legation in this city concerning the Armenian troubles and the appointment of an American representative to accompany the proposed mixed commission to be charged with an investigation. Mavroyeni Bey, the Turkish minister, refuses to be interviewed, under any circumstances. He has confined his dealings with the public in the matter to giving out two statements cabled him by the Porte

There is a strict rule of the Turkish diplomatic service which forbids a minister or other representative from making any expression of opinion concerning diplomatic affairs through the newspapers. Milo A Jewett, United States Consul at Sivas, who will accompany the proposed commission of investigation into the section where the troubles have taken place, is thoroughly familiar with that part of Turkey and is said to have kept himself posted with regard to the disturbances.

THE UTE INVASION

Delegate Rawlins, of Utah, Gives His View of the Situation

WASHINGTON, Dec 8 Delegate Rawlins, of Utah, attaches much importance to the incursions into that territory of the Colorado Utes. The Indians began crossing the border two weeks ago and number nine hundred. They have taken ponies, some 2,200 in all, with them. Rawlins characterizes them as uncivilized Indians of the "blanket" class. In his opinion they have been encouraged to make the present raid in Utah by several land syndicates at Durango, Colorado, interested in throwing open the Ute reservation in that State to settlement

Rawlins' advices from Salt Lake City indicate that five hundred white families in Southern Utah are in a state of terror as a result of the Utah raid. He explains that the Indians carried no supplies, that the country is mountainous and barren of game, and they have no means of subsistence except what they can steal from the settlers. The minds of the Indians have been inflamed against the whites in Southern Utah by being told that the country really belongs to them.

JAPAN'S ATTITUDE

In Regard to Proposals of Peace Definitely Known.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8. Confirmation by cable has been received at the Japanese legation here of the United Press despatch from Tokio that Japan had refused to treat with China in peace negotiations unless China sends duly accredited ambassadors to make overtures. This is announced from the Japanese legation to-day. No confirmation of the Reuter cable dispatch of several days ago, stating that a Chinese envoy had been appointed has reached Washington and it is believed he was not named until yesterday

It is reported that Secretary Gresham sides with Japan in her ultimatum that an ambassador, fully authorized by the Chinese Emperor, is the only person who can properly make a formal proposal for peace, and this opinion, which is purely personal, of course, coincides with the action of the Japanese government in declining to treat with Commissioner Detring on the ground that he was not properly accredited and has not been given power to treat

County Attorney Hall said to-day "The substance of this horrible story is that the poor girl was murdered for the insurance Harry Hayward had on her life. She was decoyed on a lonely road by one Blixt and shot by Blixt and another man named Erickson, who got the bloody clothes which he took to Iowa. The revolver was found in the Ozark flats this morning. It was a 38 calibre and two chambers were empty." All parties implicated are arrested. The girl was buried at Auburn, N Y, to day

I have invited several of the ablest lawyers of the state, of both political parties, to give their opinions as to the power of the governor to make these appointments

"I shall await the result of these inquiries before coming to any conclusion whatever in the premises. Should the opinions expressed by them favor the right to make the appointments, I shall then further and very carefully consider the question as to whether an emergency exists requiring the exercise of power, either in the appointment of all twelve judges, or any of them"

Grubb says it is remorse for prosecuting Dr Graves that caused Conrad to attempt suicide. This is the third time he has attempted to take his life within a year

At the indoor class games of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology Saturday for the class cup, Mr. A Sargent, 98 of Brewer, won the 35 yards dash in 4 2 5 seconds and was third in the fence vault with a record of 6 feet, [illegible] inch

At a meeting of the Municipal Officers Saturday noon it was decided to commit Frank M Beers, who arrived in the city from New York Friday night, to the State Insane Asylum. He was taken there by Officer Bowen. The case is a very unfortunate one and many will be sorry to learn of his condition. It is hoped to affect a cure there

The "Daily Workers" Circle of King's Daughters will give an entertainment in the vestry of Hammond street church, Tuesday evening, December 11th, at 7 30. A very interesting programme has been arranged under the direction of Mrs F H Chase. Ice cream, cake and candy will be for sale. The proceeds will be devoted to the King's Daughters' Home in this city

Max Foley and Frank Russell got into an argument yesterday afternoon on Exchange street and finally resorted to fists to settle the great question involved. Officers Knaide and Loftus appeared quickly on the scene. They captured Russell immediately, but Foley ran when he saw the officers coming and Officer Knaide had to chase him up York street and through French into Hancock, but he got his man as usual and both were landed in the police station

Mr H C Foss is expected to return this week from the South where he has been coaching the foot ball team of the Sewanee University in Tennessee, with excellent success. A Tufts College item in the Sunday Herald says "Foss is probably one of the best base ball and foot ball players Tufts has ever had, and his absence this fall was sorely felt by the varsity. He was elected foot ball captain a year ago, but resigned in order to accept the position in the South"

Mr Burwell, of Deering, president of the freshman class of the Maine State College, has left the college to study for the ministry and will take the course at Bowdoin followed by a seminary course. The college library has received from M Eugene Aubrit, professor of French at the Normal College of the city of New York, and a brother of the State College professor of chemistry, a gift of a complete set of the Electric Magazine from Vol. 1 to 52 inclusive, also a broken set of the North American Review

Votes for the State floral emblem are being sent to Auburn quite freely. Votes have been received from many of the prominent lawyers. The bar is almost unanimous for the pine cone and tassel. Out of the several thousand votes received up to Friday night, there is a plurality of 383 for the pine cone which a week ago led by but a few votes. Remember the polls will not close before January 1st. Any one may vote by sending his preference to the chairman of the Floral Emblem Society, 291 Court street, Auburn, Me.

The ordination and installation of Rev. H. L McCann took place at the Congregational church, Houlton, last week before a large audience. The sermon was delivered by Rev. H. L. Griffin, of Bangor, ordaining prayer by Rev. J. E. Adams, of Bangor; right hand of fellowship by Rev. H. H. Noyes, of Island Falls, charge to the pastor, Rev. Charles Harbutt, of Presque Isle, address by E M Cousins, of Portland. The church was handsomely decorated with cut flowers, ferns, potted plants and chrysanthemums, and reflected great credit upon the ladies of the church.

Mrs. Emma Gould Willis, a well known citizen of Bangor, whose death took place a few months since, left an estate of some eleven or twelve thousand dollars which she, by will, disposed of as follows. After providing for the payment of certain specific legacies and of her debts and other charges, all the remainder, being about $10,000, she placed in trust for the benefit of her niece and daughter who were to receive the income thereof during their respective lives, and upon their death the principal to be equally divided between the Humane and Fuel Societies of Bangor. As she died after the enactment of the Collateral Inheritance statute a tax of 2½ per cent. is payable to the State, the amount of which being a matter of doubt the Court of Probate is petitioned to assess the same.

A number of prominent Aroostook citizens have under consideration an appeal that may be presented to the Legislature asking for the abolishment of the set-over sleigh, a variety of vehicle universal in Aroostook. It follows from the general use of double teams. Therefore all single sleighs have the thills set over to one side so that the horse may travel in the runner track. All country roads in winter, therefore, have two parallel tracks with a ridge in the center. But General Progress, who is doing so much for Aroostook just now, wants to change the custom and secure level roads. In the spring when the snow melts, the frozen ridge remains even when the wheeled vehicles come on again, and as the set-over wagon hasn't yet appeared, travelers find danger besetting their pathway.

The Governor and Council will meet to-morrow

School register blanks are being sent out from the superintendent of school's office. It takes many thousands to reach all around the schools

The annual meeting of the Bangor Base Ball Association will be held Tuesday evening at Room 2, City Hall. A full attendance is desired.

Mrs A. E Wilcox will have an exhibition and sale of art needle work on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at the corner of Union and Columbia streets. She has many beautiful articles

Miss Mildred T Varnum, of this city, has formed a class in dancing and deportment in Waterville. Miss Varnum is a most capable teacher and Waterville dancers are fortunate in securing her instruction

The State treasury department has not as yet been called upon to furnish bounties for the killing of bears and wolves, the beasts that were reported to be so plentiful in the game sections of the far northeast wild lands of this State

Col E C Farrington, State inspector of rifle practice, is now preparing his report which will be of great interest to military men throughout the State, and will contain much information on a matter with which the colonel is familiar

Frawley's Pharmacy will present a novelty here to-day in the inauguration of "Violet Days." The store will be beautifully decorated according to the original and ingenious ideas of Mr Frawley who is known as one of our most enterprising young business men. Much curiosity has been evinced as to what he will show to day

Railroad agitation is again on foot in Washington county. Col Green as president of the Shore Line railroad, has given notice of his intention to apply to the Legislature for an extension to his charter. A petition is also in circulation memorializing the Legislature to give the city of Calais power to release her claim against the St Croix & Penobscot railroad, providing it is extended to the Maine Central at some point west of Tomah station

The Christmas publications this year appear to exceed all previous efforts in that line for both American and foreign publications. A large number can be seen at J D Glynn's and in looking them over one is struck with admiration of the beauty of design of the covers and the ingenuity and skill which have produced new and handsome things in a line in which we might assume that there could be nothing new, so numerous and varied have been the previous Christmas productions

Hon Appleton Webb, of Waterville, states his intention to dispose of all the stock owned by him at the present time. This will no doubt surprise many in the State. His stock farm is one of the finest situated in the State known as Mountain Farm, taking its name from the large hill upon the top of which it is situated, commanding a view of seven miles in all directions upon any day while in a clear one the majestic form of Mt Washington is clearly defined. The farm will not be disposed of. The stock now to be found at the stables comprises some ten head

The next report of the State librarian Hon. L D Carver will be under the heads of "General Remarks," "The Use of the Subject Calendar," "Exchanges," "Purchases," "Free Public Libraries." The aggregate number of volumes of the seventeen law libraries in the State is about 58,971. Of the four college libraries the number of volumes will reach 101,000. There are 34 free public libraries and 41 in which a fee is charged. Mr Carver's report will be more pithy and abundant with information interesting to every librarian and library patron in the State than ever before

One of the residents of Hermon had a surprise party the other day. Hearing the door bell ring, he went out to find an innocent looking black valise upon the steps. Thinking it was something left for his sister, he took the valise into the house, and was about to hand it over to his surprised sister, when it took unto itself a voice and began to remonstrate in the injured tones of babyhood. On opening the valise they found, besides the baby, a slip of paper on which was written, "Take me in and use me well, for my name is Baby J." No clue as to the identity of the child's parents having been found Baby J seems likely to remain a permanent member of the household

Supt Sawyer of the Moosehead Lake Telegraph Company, says he is keeping pace with the Bangor and Aroostook railroad construction crews with his wires. The new telegraph will afford a wire for purely commercial uses to more than 16,000 people north of Houlton. Heretofore they have been obliged to send all messages for the West via St John, with various repetitions, and but one wire at that for commercial and railroad uses. In fact, Aroostook is just beginning to realize all that it has been obliged to put up with now that the world is being brought to her doors. On the day that the road is opened to Caribou Mr Sawyer will place the wire at the disposal of the newspaper men who may be present

Fuller 4th part, are excused

The junior parts are given on the excellence of rank for the freshman and sophomore year—four parts for the gentlemen and four for the ladies.

"The Drama of Marriages"

"The Drama of Marriages" at the Opera House Friday and Saturday nights promises to be one of the most interesting entertainments given here for a long time. There are to be two hundred of our prominent society young ladies and gentlemen as participants.

It is not in any sense living pictures, but something full of life, and at the same time it entertains and instructs.

The box office at the Opera House will be open for the exchange of tickets to-morrow morning. The sale at the Opera House will commence Wednesday forenoon. Those desiring tickets to exchange for secured seats can procure them any time at the Young Men's Christian Association building or of any of the participants. The capacity of the Opera House ought to be tested.

Struck by a Train.

The Maine Central passenger train No. 1 from Portland to this city, struck and probably fatally injured a working-train employe named George Tryphona near Newport station, Saturday forenoon. Tryphonia was attempting to cross the main track on his way to dinner, and was struck by the locomotive, inflicting a fracture to his skull. The injured man was taken to his home in Waterville, where he has a family.

FOOT BALL

Portland Declines to Accept Bangor's Challenge

Portland has refused to accept Bangor's challenge to play another game on any grounds fifty miles from Portland. That is certainly the safest position for them to take as they evidently realize that they would be beaten if the game were played on neutral grounds

The challenge was the result of the claim of the officials to the effect that the last contest was no game and while hastily decided upon was an evidence that the Bangor players were willing to meet Portland and decide conclusively to the Portland team itself which is the better eleven

The outcome of the school foot ball games this fall has been a great disappointment to all throughout the State who have any feeling of fairness and justice and it has been conclusively shown that a team which stands any show whatever of beating Portland must expect the rankest kind of treatment there. If the score is 52 to 0 then the visiting team may not be mobbed but just let it be a close contest and then look out for breakers

The Bangor team will probably never again play in Portland and possibly will not play them on any ground but if games are arranged next year they will certainly be played on neutral territory or not at all

It is pretty well understood throughout the State and in Massachusetts by this time that Bangor was robbed of that game and the following press comments support that claim

Lewiston Journal—The Bangor foot ballists now accuse their Portland rivals of lying to them and publish the documents. But it seems to have been a game in which Beef was too much for Saigdom

Lewiston Sun—To the casual observer it would look as though Portland was trying to crawl out of a pretty small hole. The game in Portland was [illegible] given to Bangor 8 to 4

Now as to the ridiculous claims of Portland to the championship on the ground that they have won more games. Bangor does not concede that they have but supposing for the sake of argument that they have, what then? There was no regular schedule of games and each team played any team it chose and at any time. Bangor tried to get games with Augusta and Gardiner but could not. Portland managed to get two games with Augusta which was the weakest in the State, and rolled up [illegible] points

Bangor played the three strongest teams Portland, Hebron and Waterville losing but one. It was conceded by all the teams that the championship lay between Bangor and Portland and three games were arranged by them. The first was played in Bangor and was won by Portland 8—0, the second in Portland and won by Bangor 11—8, the third in Portland and the score was Bangor 8, Portland [illegible] when the crowd rushed upon the field two minutes before the close of the second half with the ball in Bangor's possession and stopped the game. The game was not stopped by darkness but by [illegible] which refused to leave the field

Now as to the actual number of points in the three games Bangor made [illegible] and Portland 20 and if the third game had been finished, and it was not Bangor's fault that it was not, Bangor's score would probably have been increased as the crowd would not allow a try for goal from the second touchdown. The points show a superiority of playing upon Bangor's part and it is nonsense for Portland to try to make it appear that they had the better team

The pennant by rights belongs to Bangor as having shown the best playing of any school team in the State

The Portland Argus says of the third game

It was purely a business transaction and Bangor received over $200 as her share of the gate receipts and then they kicked because the Portland boys did not entertain them as they did on the first visit when they received no money and were considered as Portland's guest

Bangor does not kick for the above mentioned reason. They expected no reception or dance but they had a shadow of a hope that they would receive decent treatment on the grounds from the management and the crowd. They were badly disappointed

MUNICIPAL COURT

Another Deer Case Heard Saturday

In the Municipal Court Saturday the case of State vs C J Lynch for having in his possession between October 1st and December 8th more than one moose was heard. The evidence was that on December 4th Mr Lynch who is a marketman took to Boston for sale a carcass of a moose and a deer carcass and sold them and that he had in his possession one moose in excess of the number allowed by law

Detective Thomas F Allen made the complaint and appeared in court. The result of the hearing was that the respondent was fined $100 and costs and appealed. P G White, Esq appeared for the State and F H Appleton Esq for the respondent

Joseph Cowan was before the court Saturday for drunkenness and was fined $3 and costs

The B & A

Under favorable conditions the rail of the Bangor and Aroostook will be laid into Caribou by the middle of this week. The Fort Fairfield branch has already been laid. It is likely that passenger trains will run to Bridgewater this winter without restrictions by the railroad commissioners. From Bridgewater north as the road is but partially ballasted the running time will be limited to fifteen or twenty miles an hour, as now planned

"We shall take care of the freight that is waiting along the extension as soon as our most earnest endeavors will allow says Mr Cram

"The shippers are clamorous as they have a right to be, with several million bushels of potatoes awaiting transportation

"Scores of potato houses are crammed along the line to say nothing of other produce. My plan now is to gradually extend the Houlton yard by running freight trains north to Bridgewater and intermediate stations as fast as we can without interfering with the construction crews

"While this weather lasts, however we mustn't interfere with the latter for every train over the upper section would only postpone the completion and that above all, is what we are striving for now. As soon as the steam shovels are driven off by the snows we shall have them on four locomotives that can be devoted to the freight and passenger business

"This winter all the immense acres of birch growth between Houlton and Brownville have been taken up by operators and crews are getting out millions of feet of spool timber and other material. Mills are going up along the line and the only question with us is how to haul the stuff that is being piled up along our tracks"

Civil Service Examination

The Civil Service Commission at Washington has ordered that an examination be held in this city on Saturday, December 22, 1894, commencing at 9 o'clock, A. M., for the grades of clerk and carrier in the city post office. Only citizens of the United States can be examined. The age limitations are as follows: For carrier, not under 21 nor over 40; for all other positions, not under 18 years. No application will be accepted for this examination unless filed with the undersigned in complete form, on the proper blank, before the hour of closing business on December 17, 1894.

The Civil Service Commission takes this opportunity of stating that the examinations are open to all reputable citizens who may desire to enter the postal service, without regard to their political affiliations. All such citizens, whether Democrats or Republicans, or neither, are invited to apply. They shall be examined, graded, and certified with entire impartiality, and wholly without regard to their political views, or to any consideration save their efficiency, as shown by the grades they obtain in the examination, says the circular issued by the commissioner.

For application blanks, full instructions, and information relative to the duties and salaries of the different positions, apply at the post office to C. F. Thompson, secretary board of examiners.

FIRE AT WINN

L C Crockett's Buildings Burned to the Ground

Our Winn correspondent writes: [illegible] day evening about 7 o'clock the set of buildings occupied by L C Crockett formerly of Stetson, were burned to the ground. They were situated south of the village on the Phillips road so-called about one mile and a quarter from the village of Winn. The family were moving out Thursday into a new house built by Mr Crockett a couple of miles further down the road. The fire is supposed to have caught from hot ashes taken from the stove moved and carried into the barn

Some chickens and hay were in the barn and potatoes in the cellar. Some of the potatoes and hens were saved. The property passed into the hands of Mr James [illegible] the past summer by foreclosure of mortgage and Mr [illegible] had taken the lease of the place the past summer

The roads are hard and good but some snow is anxiously expected for sledding.

The Harper's Ferry Jubilee Singers give a concert at Mattawamkeag on the evening of December 11th.

Look Out for the Joke

A well known joker has been showing his friends a watch lately

"That is a curious Italian [illegible]" he would remark

The friend looks it over, sees the name Elgin Watch Co on the dial and naturally answers

"I don't see anything Italian about it"

"Watch the hands [illegible] and you will see the dago"

The 1894 chef of South Brewer held its first Saturday evening reception of the season Saturday evening at its club house on Main street and the occasion was made a very pleasant one Messrs Abbott and Jones furnished music and all present greatly enjoyed the evening

Just at this season of the year there are many men in the city out of employment temporarily, the shutting down of the various mills having left them with no work until they find something else to do A large number of them will go into the woods to work while others will be engaged in the ice operations on the river when they are begun

The days are now nearly at their shortest length of the year the sun rising at 7 21 A M and setting at 4 21 P M, making the day 9 hours and 58 minutes long It will decrease only a few minutes more in a week or two yet to elapse before the sun starts this way again and then the time of sunlight each day will commence to lengthen

The regular meeting of the Oak Hill Cemetery Improvement Association is to be held Tuesday evening at the aldermen's room in City Hall and the meeting will be one of special importance as reports of the work done during the year and a financial statement will be made. The meeting will begin at 7 o'clock and all members are requested to be present

A BLIND GIRL PRINTER

She Quickly Learned Set Type With Special Aptness

A remarkable case of what can be done by a blind person is now being exemplified at Swedesboro, near Mount City In September a year ago S B Angell purchased of the Swedesboro Boy, and not having a job assistant his blind sister Miss Hattie Angell, prevailed upon him to allow her to go into the office and assist in the work For the first few days her hand operations in folding papers etc and she soon became proficient in that she asked to be allowed to set type and was given a case to see what she could do In less than an hour she had the boxes learned and her first printed type was set in 50 minutes

What is still more remarkable, she can now set as much type as the average compositor can do with good accuracy She experiences but little difficulty with her copy She is expert in writing the language of the blind and rarely is directed to her Writing it down in her language she goes to her case, and finding her fingers over the raised surface she retains in her mind entire sentences and accordingly can set with great rapidity in order to get the form right side up her paddle fingers are used in feeling the necks and this is done while the type is being lifted into position to the stick She has not yet attempted to distribute type, but she expects to soon become master of this art as well Miss Angell is a very intelligent young woman and is a fine player on the piano She has also achieved quite a little fame as a singer —Pittsburg Dispatch

WANT ANY FERTILIZER?

The Chilean Government Is Giving Away Nitrate of Soda to American Farmers

The Chilean government has appropriated a large sum of money to pay for the transportation of several cargoes of nitrate from Chile to the United States and the establishment here of a bureau of distribution A commissioner has been appointed who represents the Chilean government here in the tests to be made with it in comparison with domestic fertilizers

The people of Chile believe that if the farmers of this country once know the value of nitrate of soda as a fertilizer they will use it in preference to the manufactured fertilizers But Chile's first aim is to develop a market for its nitrates in the United States Up to the present time England and one or two other European countries have been the consumers of the nitrate found in Chile. Very little is exported to the United States And the reason for this, so say the Chileans is that the merits of this peculiar fertilizer are almost unknown to American agriculturists

For the past two months the Chilean government has been distributing small packages of nitrate of soda from Washington where the Chilean agent has established a magnificent headquarters and is working in conjunction with the department of agriculture. Up to the present time a ship's cargo has been given out in this way to farmers and horticulturists Experiments in the past prove that the nitrate is a valuable top dressing for wheat and that a hundredweight of the nitrate per acre producing an increase of the crop 12 bushels per acre with corn from four to five inches in oats And experiments are being made to send to all parts of the country a sufficient quantity of nitrate to furnish an object lesson in order that the results may be compared with other fertilizers used in adjoining ground Several cargoes of nitrate will be sent here from Chile for this purpose —New York World
